A Full Memorial Biography

1. Birth and Family Background

Hazrat Hafiz Muhammad Alam Sialkoti (R.A.) was the son of Haji Maulana Shah Muhammad. The principal biographical account gives his birthplace as Ranjan, Jammu district, Kashmir, and places his birth in 1343 AH / 1924 CE, while another source gives 1345 AH. He later became closely associated with Sialkot, particularly the Do Darwaza area and Jamia Hanafiya.

2. Qur'anic and Religious Education

Hafiz Muhammad Alam (R.A.) memorised the Holy Qur'an from his paternal uncle, Hafiz Ahmad Din, in the Bijli Ghar area of Sialkot. In 1938 he began further religious studies in Lahore, including study under Maulana Muhammad Nabi Bakhsh Halwai. He also studied under Allamah Mehr al-Din Jamaati and subsequently entered Dar-ul-Uloom Hizb-ul-Ahnaf, Lahore. He completed Daurah Hadith in 1945 and received his Dastar-e-Fazilat.

3. Teachers and Scholarly Formation

Among the teachers named in the biographical material is Mufti-e-Azam Allamah Abu'l-Barakat Sayyid Ahmad. His education placed him firmly within the traditional Dars-e-Nizami and Hadith teaching tradition and connected him with the scholarly environment of Dar-ul-Uloom Hizb-ul-Ahnaf and Maulana Muhammad Nabi Bakhsh Halwai.

4. Early Teaching and Khitabat

After completing his studies, Hafiz Muhammad Alam (R.A.) served as an Imam at a mosque in Lal Haveli, inside Akbari Gate, Lahore. After the death of Maulana Sultan Mahmood, he became Khateeb of Jamia Masjid Shah Muhammad Ghaus. He also taught at Muslim Model High School.

5. Dar-ul-Uloom Naeemia

When Allamah Mufti Muhammad Hussain Naeemi established Dar-ul-Uloom Naeemia at Chowk Dalgaran, Lahore, in 1953, Hafiz Muhammad Alam (R.A.) was among its early teachers. The biography records that he taught there without taking payment.

6. Jamia Hanafiya, Sialkot

In 1957 he established Jamia Hanafiya / Dar-ul-Uloom Hanafiya at Do Darwaza, Sialkot. The institution became a centre for Dars-e-Nizami and Hadith studies, and large numbers of students benefited from his teaching. He also worked with Maulana Muhammad Yusuf in establishing Jamia Abdul Hakim at Masjid Maulana Abdul Hakim.

7. Spiritual Affiliation and Religious Outlook

The biographical account records that Hafiz Muhammad Alam (R.A.) first received spiritual guidance from Maulana Nabi Bakhsh Halwai. After his passing, Hafiz Muhammad Alam (R.A.) took bay'ah with Hazrat Pir Faiz Muhammad Qandhari of Tandlianwala. His life and teaching were rooted in the traditional Sunni scholarly and spiritual environment, with a strong concern for religious learning, the preservation of Sunni beliefs, and guidance for ordinary Muslims and younger generations.

8. Scholarly and Preaching Services

As a Hafiz, 'Alim and Shaykh al-Hadith, Hafiz Muhammad Alam (R.A.) devoted himself to the teaching of Qur'an, Hadith and the traditional Islamic sciences. His services included teaching, khatabat, religious guidance and the preparation of students who themselves went on to serve the Muslim community. His association with the Sunni scholarly tradition associated with Imam Ahmad Raza Khan (R.A.) forms part of the religious legacy described in the wider biographical material.

9. Students and Scholarly Influence

Among those associated with his teaching and scholarly influence were Hazrat Pir Habib-ur-Rehman Mehboobi; Qari Raza-ul-Mustafa Jamil; Hazrat Allama Mufti Hafiz Fazal Ahmed Qadri, Derby, his son-in-law; Mufti Hafiz Nazir Ahmed, his son-in-law; Pir Syed Ishtiaq Hussain Shah Sahib; and Maulana Raza Saqib Mustafai. The wider biographical record also names Hazrat Pir Irshad Hussain Chorahi, Maulana Ilahi Bakhsh, Qari Ghulam Rasul, Hafiz Muhammad Ashraf Mujaddidi, Maulana Muhammad Ziaullah Qadri, Maulana Ata-ul-Mustafa Jamil, Sahibzada Ghulam Haider Shah, Maulana Abdul Salam Qadsi, Maulana Ghulam Mustafa, Mufti of Azad Kashmir, and Maulana Altaf Muhyuddin, among others. A separate biography of Pirzada Muhammad Raza Saqib Mustafai confirms that he studied Dars-e-Nizami under Shaykh-ul-Hadith Hafiz Muhammad Alam Muhaddith Sialkoti.

10. 1953 Khatm-e-Nubuwwat Movement

The biographical account records active participation by Hafiz Muhammad Alam (R.A.) in the 1953 Khatm-e-Nubuwwat movement. It states that he was arrested by martial-law authorities, brought before a military court, detained in Lahore Fort, and later released.

11. 1970 National Assembly Election

The available biographical record indicates that in the 1970 general election he contested a National Assembly seat from Sialkot on the Jamiat Ulema-e-Pakistan / MJUP ticket. An election-results record for NW-74 Sialkot-I lists Muhammad Alam with 38,843 votes.

12. 1974 Khatm-e-Nubuwwat Activity

The biography records prominent activity during the 1974 Khatm-e-Nubuwwat movement. It reports that 25 Ahmadis accepted Islam through him, citing contemporary Nawa-i-Waqt and Mashriq reports and a December 1974 Khatm-e-Nubuwwat publication. The relationship between the different historical accounts is treated with appropriate care in the source material.

13. Auqaf Service

Hafiz Muhammad Alam (R.A.) served as a District Khateeb in the Auqaf Department. The biography states that he later gave up this government position because of his involvement in the Tehreek-e-Nizam-e-Mustafa.

14. 1977 Tehreek-e-Nizam-e-Mustafa

The biography states that Hafiz Muhammad Alam (R.A.) was arrested during the 1977 Tehreek-e-Nizam-e-Mustafa, describing the case as a 'bomb case'. After his release, it says he led a large procession after Jumu'ah prayer in Sialkot. The account further records that firing took place during the procession, several people were killed, and Hafiz Muhammad Alam (R.A.) himself was shot and taken to hospital, followed by the imposition of curfew in Sialkot. These details remain presented as the reported biographical account described in the source.

15. Public Standing and Religious Guidance

The biography records an observation that when Hafiz Muhammad Alam (R.A.) travelled to Kotli Loharan for an annual gathering, people of different ages came out to greet him. This illustrates the respect described in the biographical record. His influence extended beyond formal teaching: he guided ordinary Muslims, encouraged religious education, and worked to preserve the beliefs and practices of the Sunni community.

16. Final Years and Passing

Hafiz Muhammad Alam (R.A.) passed away on 20 August 1999, on the day of Jumu'ah, during Fajr time. His passing marked the end of a life devoted to Qur'anic learning, Hadith, teaching, preaching and religious service.

17. Derby Janazah

The Derby Janazah of Huzoor Muhaddith-e-Sialkoti, Hafiz Muhammad Alam (R.A.), was held at Derby Jamia Masjid. The Namaz-e-Janazah was led by Hazrat Pir Muhammad Habib-ur-Rehman. Many Ulama-e-Kiram from Britain and Europe attended, reflecting the wide scholarly and religious respect associated with Hafiz Muhammad Alam (R.A.).

18. Sialkot Janazah

A separate Janazah was held in Sialkot. The funeral drew a very large attendance, with thousands of mourners gathering to pay their respects and participate in the final rites of a scholar whose life had been closely connected with Sialkot and its religious institutions. The reported attendance was exceptionally large, and the occasion reflected the depth of affection and respect felt for him.

19. Grave and Do Darwaza Legacy

Hafiz Muhammad Alam (R.A.)'s grave is associated with the Do Darwaza area of Sialkot, the locality long connected with Jamia Hanafiya. His association with the institution and locality remained an important part of his enduring legacy.

20. Family and Religious Succession

Later reports of the annual Urs identify his son Sahibzada Hafiz Hamid Raza as his successor. An official Azad Jammu and Kashmir Legislative Assembly record also identifies Hafiz Hamid Raza as the son of Hafiz Muhammad Alam. Another son named in family information is Hafiz Muhammad Raza. His descendants and students continued to carry aspects of his religious and scholarly legacy forward.

21. Continuing Legacy

Reports of later annual Urs gatherings describe scholars, Mashayikh and students attending commemorations of Hafiz Muhammad Alam (R.A.). His influence continued through his students, his institution, his family and the gatherings held in his remembrance. His legacy remains connected with the teaching of Hadith and Dars-e-Nizami, religious education, Sunni scholarship and the guidance of succeeding generations.

22. Major Roles and Legacy

Hafiz Muhammad Alam (R.A.) was a Hafiz and 'Alim, a Qur'an memoriser and traditional Islamic scholar; a Shaykh al-Hadith and teacher of Hadith and Dars-e-Nizami; the founder of Jamia Hanafiya / Dar-ul-Uloom Hanafiya at Do Darwaza, Sialkot; a teacher of numerous Ulama; a public religious servant who served as District Khateeb in the Auqaf Department; and a participant in major religious movements of his time. His religious and spiritual legacy was expressed through knowledge, teaching, preaching, service and the students and descendants who continued his work.

23. Conclusion

Hafiz Muhammad Alam Sialkoti (R.A.) left behind a legacy of Qur'anic learning, Hadith scholarship, teaching, spiritual guidance and service to the Muslim community. His life connected traditional scholarship with the needs of ordinary Muslims, while his students and descendants carried his influence into later generations. May Allah Ta'ala forgive him, have mercy upon him, elevate his ranks, and make his grave a garden from the gardens of Jannah. Ameen.
